Makes a Difference at Mercy

In these uncertain economic times, your life changing gifts to Mercy are especially needed and deeply appreciated.

This Report to the Community contains an Honor Roll of Contributors for 2009, acknowledging the generous donors who have made an investment in Mercy with their gifts.

With your help, the Foundation's annual support for Mercy continues to grow to a new level with a special 40th Anniversary gift of $1,094,000 this past fiscal year!

The Foundation continues to fund cutting-edge medical equipment, facility improvements and patient comfort items, all of which make a tremendous difference to our patients.

The Foundation is especially proud of the role our donors have played in assisting with the creation of Mercy Hospice Care, the first and only facility in Johnson County dedicated to end-of-life care.

Looking to the future, the Foundation will continue to provide substantial funding for the education of health care professionals with scholarships for Mercy employees seeking advanced training in nursing and generous scholarships for high school students entering the health care field.

In fulfillment of Mercy's mission to work to improve the health of the community the Foundation will provide on-going support for educational materials and community based programs including the Foundation Education Forums.

Your support is critical in helping us meet these important goals.

We encourage you to make a difference through a gift to an area that is important to you. For more information on giving options please call or visit our Web site at www.mercyiowacity.org for more information on ways to Make a Gift.

Thank you for your confidence in Mercy Hospital and your support of our work.

“It was always a privilege and a pleasure to assist Sister Venarda in her administration of Mercy Hospital and her creation of the Mercy Foundation.

Good things always happened when she was involved.”

Richard Feddersen, original Foundation Board member

Foundation Celebrates 40 Years of Giving

Forty years ago, acting President and CEO, Sister Mary Venarda, called together nine local people of influence with a challenge — form a foundation to generate private support for Mercy.

When the Foundation was formed in 1969, Mercy had already been serving the community for 96 years, evolving from the work of four Sisters of Mercy in 1863, to a multi-service community hospital.

Since its inception, the Foundation has been served by a lay Board of Directors. In 1985 the far-sighted volunteers initiated an endowment campaign, The Fund for Tomorrow, that has lived up to its name by providing an on-going means of funding for hospital needs.

“We stood behind Sister Venarda as she led the way,” says Richard Feddersen, an original Foundation Board member who continues to support the work of the Foundation today, most recently with a gift for a new endowment fund created specifically to support the Mercy Hospice Care Unit.

“It was always a privilege and a pleasure to assist Sister Venarda in her administration of Mercy Hospital and her creation of the Mercy Foundation,” says Feddersen. “Good things always happened when she was involved.”

Good things continue to happen with current campaigns that provide critical support for Mercy. In celebration of the Foundation’s 40th Anniversary, the Foundation made a gift of more than one million dollars ($1,094,000) to Mercy in fiscal year 2009.

More than half of the gift was dedicated to the new hospice unit. The balance of the gift was directed to medical equipment, scholarships, patient comfort items and educational programs.

Also funded was art, including works by local artists that have been dedicated to the nine members of the original Foundation Board of Directors: Sister Mary Venarda Lance, Sister Mary Alois Kessler, Chuck Dore, Richard Feddersen, Bud Houghton, David Noonan, Christian Schrock, M.D., W.W. Summerwill and the Rev. Roy Wingate.

These pieces serve to both honor the visionaries who answered a call to serve and remind us of Mercy’s long and rich history of caring for our community.

“Each day brings new meaning to my personal outlook on life, I feel fortunate to participate in the healing process of our patients.”

Lindsey Clifford, nurse

Soldier, Student, Nurse

Since childhood, Lindsey Clifford had dreamed of becoming a nurse. She had not, however, envisioned herself as a soldier in a combat zone as part of the path she would take to get there.

Following high school Lindsey started taking college courses she financed with part-time jobs when the events of 911 changed her life.

This was a turning point in which she saw an opportunity to become a part of history. Wanting to join a force working for a greater good in the world, she made the life-changing decision to enter the military and enlisted in the army.

After basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, she was deployed to serve Iraq in 2004 and 2005, as unit supply personnel in a transportation unit. While in Iraq she witnessed a major mass casualty when insurgents blew up the base dining facility. She remembered thinking, at the time, that she wished she could do more to help the wounded.

Once back in the United States, Lindsey resumed her nursing studies in earnest and began to work at Mercy Iowa City Cancer Care as a nurse tech. She selected Mercy, a community hospital, because she wanted to be part of a team that took pride in providing personalized healthcare.

She was delighted to learn that Mercy offered tuition assistance and that in addition, the Foundation offered scholarships for employees pursuing a degree in nursing.

Each grant cycle, three exceptional applicants are selected to receive endowed scholarships. It was especially fitting that Lindsey was selected to receive the Erusha Family Scholarship founded by Rita and Don Erusha. As they learned when they met, Lindsey and Don are both veterans of foreign wars, Don having served in World War II.

She now feels that her experience enmeshed in another culture helps her to understand her patients and their differences. “Each day brings new meaning to my personal outlook on life,” says Lindsey. “I feel fortunate to participate in the healing process of our patients.”

Lindsey will graduate in May 2010, with her BSN from St. Ambrose University. Lindsey is grateful for the scholarships that have helped her, in her words, “complete one of my biggest passions, becoming a nurse.”

Don Erusha, seven days before WWII ended in Germany.

“Thank you for allowing me to be a daughter, rather than a caretaker, at the end of my mother’s life.”

Julie Knight, Elaine Malott’s daughter

Mercy Hospice Care

Not many people plan for the end of life with the knowledge, resources and compassion for others of Elaine Malott.

Following her work as a nurse for 50 years Elaine volunteered with hospice in her home community in Arkansas. Hospice was her passion.

Widowed and facing a terminal illness, Elaine planned for the next stage of her life with courage and grace, and the help of her daughter, Julie and son-in-law, Dan Knight.

The decision was made that Julie and Dan would build a home to accommodate Elaine’s needs as her illness progressed. Julie left her position at Mercy to be available as a full-time caregiver to her beloved mother. Dan, an internationally know Jazz Pianist, adjusted his travel schedule to provide care and support as needed.

By the late stages of Elaine’s illness, her care became more complex and physically demanding. At the same time, Mercy Iowa City was about to open the first and only community hospice facility in Johnson County, Mercy Hospice Care.

Dan and Julie had learned about the unit through their continued contact with the hospital. Dan volunteered with the Mercy Employee Choir, providing accompaniment for holiday concerts. Julie stayed in touch with former colleagues and watched with interest, as a dream became a plan and then a reality. According to the wishes of the Sisters of Mercy, their former convent had become a place of great compassion and care for patients at the end of life.

It was Elaine who told Julie and Dan in the spring of 2009, that it was time for her to go to Mercy.

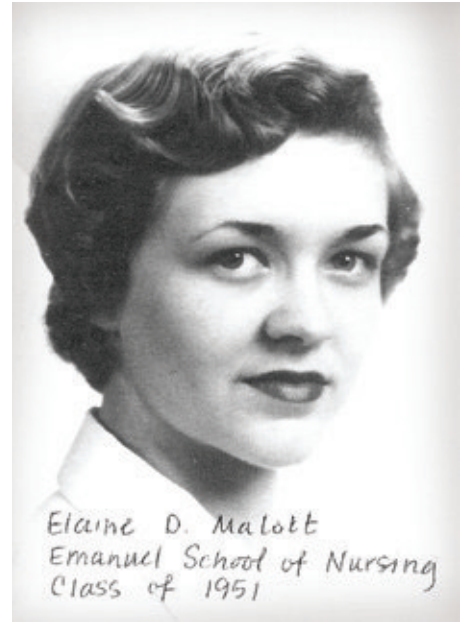

At first reluctant, Julie and Dan agreed. Again, Elaine had made a good decision. The support and accommodations they found at Mercy Hospice Care for Elaine and their family reassured and comforted them all.

Five days later Elaine passed away peacefully, in a room facing the treetops, with Dan and Julie by her side.

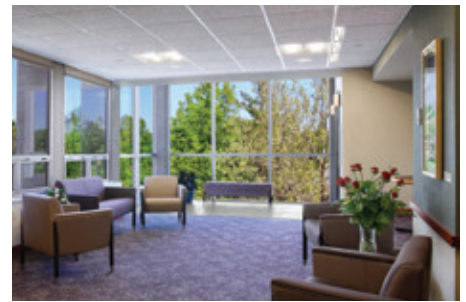

In the fall, addressing donors who had helped make the hospice unit possible with their gifts to the Foundation, Julie touched all deeply with her sincere gratitude when she said, “Thank you for allowing me to be a daughter, rather than a caretaker, at the end of my mother’s life.”

As a fitting tribute to Elaine, and in appreciation of her care, Julie and Dan are donating a Steinway piano to the hospice unit. Elaine was a music lover who especially enjoyed listening to Dan play the piano. With this gift, Julie and Dan can share the gift of music with future patients and their families, a gift of beauty and peace.

Ways of Giving

Giving is personal, and behind each contribution is an individual reason for giving. The Mercy Hospital Foundation, Mercy Iowa City's preferred channel for private gifts, offers a variety of ways to contribute. One of these programs can fit your personal financial plan while benefiting tomorrow's patients and their families.

Cash Gift

The simplest method of providing support for Mercy is with a cash gift. These gifts may be made with a personal check, credit card authorization or on-line by clicking Make a Gift at www.mercyiowacity.org.

Annual Support

Annual support at every level is deeply appreciated and crucial to maintaining the quality of our programs and services. If you wish, you may set up a pledge to give monthly, quarterly, or annually. We would be happy to send you a reminder in any month you specify. Please indicate accordingly on the enclosed contribution form.

Planned and Major Gifts

Long-range estate and financial planning allow you to make a substantial contribution to Mercy while benefiting your personal financial plans. Bequests, gifts of life insurance, trusts, and appreciated securities are among the deferred giving options that the Mercy Hospital Foundation would be happy to discuss with you. For more information, please check the appropriate box on the enclosed envelope or contact the Foundation office at any time.

Honorary or Memorial Gifts

An honorary or memorial gift is a thoughtful and meaningful way to recognize a colleague, friend or relative. The Foundation will notify the honoree or next-of-kin that you have made a gift. The person being honored or memorialized is recognized in the Foundation's annual Honor Roll of Contributors.

Honoring Mercy Caregivers

Honoring Mercy caregivers with a donation to Mercy through the Foundation is a meaningful way to recognize the extraordinary care you or a loved one received from the staff at Mercy. Upon receipt of your gift the Foundation will send a card to the healthcare professional(s) you wish to honor to let them know of your thoughtfulness.

McAuley Legacy Society

McAuley Legacy Society includes donors who have remembered Mercy in their will or estate plans. Expectancy donors have let the Foundation know of their intention to remember Mercy in their estate plans. This allows donors to direct future gifts to areas that are meaningful to them. To learn more about making a gift through your will or estate plan visit our Web site at www.mercyiowacity.org and click on Make a Gift.

A Commitment to Serve that Spans Generations

The (right) photo of donors, Kailin Lust and Maggie Fox, first appeared in the 2006 Report to the Community. Since that time, Kailin, pictured below left at her summer lemonade stand, has continued to raise funds for Mercy. Maggie has had the pleasure of attending the Spring Awards Programs at which the recipients of the Margaret G. Fox Educational Scholarship are recognized. She is pictured below with Mercy Education Coordinator, Mary McCarthy, at the May 7, 2009, program.
